DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 3 and 14-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 3, line 3, it is not clear what "said side surfaces" is referring to and how it is related to the "walls".

In claim 14, lines 6-7, "one brake shoe engages opposite sides of each window sash" cannot be understood structurally. It is not clear what is being defined as "opposite sides" and how one brake shoe is able to engage the two sides.

Further, it is not understood how "a set of brake shoes" (multiple shoes) are structurally and functionally related to the sash to render the invention operable.

Line 11-19, it cannot be understood how "curl springs" (multiple springs) are related to the brake shoes or sash to render the device operable. The disclosure does not clearly show such embodiments.

Drawings

3. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the embodiments of claims 14-18 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 14 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Westfall (5,353,548). Note that '548 has brake shoes (50), curl springs (see figs. 20+), spring anchors (12, 70). '548 clearly points out that the advantages include arrangement of the counterbalance device to accommodate a full extent of sash travel, a normal configuration of jamb and shoe channel, and standard tilt latches mounted on the upper rail of a sash (col. 1 lines n44-50 and 60-68).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claims 11 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over CA 2382790A1 in view of LaSee (6,088,880).

CA '790 discloses the invention as claimed but for at least one rib extending from each side of the shoe body. '880 teaches a sliding shoe having ribs (48) extending from the sliding surface of the shoe body to reduce friction and jamming from dirt or debris between the shoe and the track. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the sliding surfaces of '790 with ribs extending therefrom as taught by '880 to reduce friction and jamming from dirt or debris between the shoe and the track.

8. Claim 16 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Westfall '548 in view of LaSee '880 for the same reason as stated in last paragraph above.

9. Claims 14 and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over CA '790 in view of Westfall '548.

'790 discloses the invention as claimed but fails to show any specific spring anchors. '548 teaches a window balance arrangement having spring anchors mounted in the shoe channel to accommodate "a full extend of sash travel" and "standard tilt latches mounted on the upper rail of a sash". It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the arrangement of CA '790 with the spring anchors as taught by '548 to accommodate a full extend of sash travel and the tilt latches on the upper rail of a sash.

10. Claim 16 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over CA '790 and Westfall '548 as applied to claims 14 and 15 above, and further in view of LaSee '880 for the same reason as stated in paragraph 7 of this action.

Allowable Subject Matter

11. Claims 1, 2, and 4-10 are allowed.

12. Claim 3 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

13. Claim 13 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

14. Claims 17 and 18 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

15. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
